

Rationale:

The primary mission of the St. Paul University-Manila's PhD in Education major in School Leadership is to establish excellence in education, particularly in the field of educational leadership and management. The doctoral program prepares teachers and school managers and leaders to develop leadership in education, to promote scholarship of teaching, and to uphold education based-research in the discipline. Education at the doctoral level builds upon and extends content acquired at the baccalaureate and masters' levels to emphasize theory development, learning strategies and research skills. The program is committed to increase the number of Filipino educators and Paulinian school managers as education doctors in the future. These Paulinian doctors will be qualified to fill managerial positions in educational institutions in the country.
